CPUC head Michael Peevey to step down

Sfchronicle · 4 days ago · veooz 360°

Summary The City of San Bruno obtained email correspondences claiming to illustrate an inappropriate relationship between the Senior staff of the CPUC and PG&E. The president of the California Public Utilities Commission, who came under fire for the agency's lax regulation of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. before the deadly San Bruno explosion and for recent revelations of back-channel communications with utility executives, said Thursday he would step aside when his term ends in December.
